ABOUT REACT UNIVERSE CONF

Formerly React Native EU (RNEU), React Universe Conf (RUC) is a one-of-a-kind space for knowledge sharing and networking with developers from around the world.

React Universe Conf combines the best of React Native EU with a new enhanced formula. It creates a space to discuss cross-platform development with React Native and full stack with React. Here's what to expect:

- A lineup with expert speakers from tech leaders like: Meta, Microsoft, Stripe, and Shopify
- Top-notch talks covering cross-platform development with React Native and full stack with React
- 650+ React and React Native enthusiasts coming to learn, network, and have a great time in the heart of Europe
- The iconic vibe - a unique atmosphere with a strong community feel
